Sigma Tau Delta is a lifetime membership organization that encourages fellowship among those interested in English studies. The fee for initiation includes official lifetime status with the international honors society as well as a membership certificate and pin. These will come to the chapter sponsor via the English Department after submission of the approved enrollment application and fees in the form of dues to the Central Office. To remain active in the local chapter, returning members pay a small annual fee to support the local chapter and to help fund literary and community events as well as the induction awards ceremony celebrating student achievement.
