

THE DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH AT UNC CHARLOTTE ANNOUNCES THE 2024-2025 RUSSELL M. ROBINSON II GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP IN ENGLISH

The Russell M. Robinson II Graduate Scholarship in English was established in 1990 by Sally and Russell Robinson to support the recruitment of exceptional graduate students into the Master of Arts in English program. The scholarship is awarded to an outstanding student entering the English M.A. program who has an excellent undergraduate record, evidence of commitment to graduate studies in English as well as leadership abilities in college and community organizations.

Deadline for Application: March 1, 2024

A $4000 Russell M. Robinson Scholarship will be awarded to an outstanding student entering the English M.A. program in the Fall of 2023 and is renewable for a second year.

Application Materials

- ▶ A letter expressing the strengths you bring to the program
- ▶ Acceptance into the English M.A. program

Criteria for Selection

- ▶ Outstanding undergraduate record
- ▶ Evidence of commitment to graduate studies in English
- ▶ Evidence of leadership abilities in college and community organizations

Submit your application letter at <<http://scholarships.charlotte.edu/>>.

Questions? Contact Dr. Lara Vetter,
Director of Graduate Programs in English
LVetter@uncc.edu